

DELMAS ISSUES A STATEMENT AS TO REASON OF WITHDRAWAL FROM THE THAW COUNSEL

Eminent Attorney Thinks Defendant Needs a
Valet Instead of a Legal Adviser

MRS. EVELYN THAW ALSO MAKES A STATEMENT

Says That When Harry Is Free They Will Live on a Western Ranch and Forget
The Past.

New York, April 19.—Three members of the jury which tried Thaw, were today summoned before Assistant District Attorney Smyth for examination regarding the statement made by Juror Dennee of an appeal made to the jurors who were Mystic Shriners on the ground that Thaw's father was a Shriner. The jurors summoned are Dennee, Geo. Pfaff and Chas. D. Newton, all Shriners.

Dennee said that Pfaff told him that a policeman on guard at the court house had approached Juror Newton and whispered that Thaw's father was a shriner.
Dennee added: "I do not think any one tampered with any juror. If the policeman did this, it was probably on his own hook."
Dennee was the only Shriner on the jury who voted for Thaw's acquittal. Pfaff and Newton steadily voted for first degree murder.

DELPHIN M. DELMAS MAKES A STATEMENT

D. M. Delmas, Thaw's chief counsel today made statement explaining his withdrawal, saying that he refused to continue, despite the entreaty of Thaw's relatives, because he could not reconcile his dignity as an attorney with what Thaw demanded of his counsel.
Thaw, Delmas said, is not as much in need of an attorney as of a valet. The Tombs prisoner demands that lawyers shall be at his beck and call every moment of the day or night. Delmas says he has written Thaw's family to the above effect.

EVELYN'S STATEMENT.

New York, April 19.—Evelyn Thaw gave out a remarkable interview today. She said that when Harry is acquitted they will go west and live on a ranch. She says she will never return to the stage.

BANDIT CONFESSES TO BOLD HOLD UP

St. Paul, Minn., April 19.—The police have secured a confession from John Gunderson, who held up a clerk in the Northern Pacific company's offices at the Union station Tuesday night and compelled him to give up a package containing $25,000 in currency. Gunderson told the officers where $24,000 was hidden, and where they would find the other $1,000. The officers at once secured the larger amount and are now after the $1,000 which was secreted in another place.

WAGON SMASHED DRIVER UNHURT IN COLLISION

BETWEEN B. & O. PASSENGER
TRAIN AND WM. CONNELL'S
WAGON.

When the Crash Came It Seemed Inevitable That Mr. Connell Had Been Killed.

With a crash that sent the fragments of his wagon high into the air B. & O. passenger train No. 104, running a half hour behind time, struck the horse and wagon being driven by Mr. William Connell of 105 Jefferson street at the Williams street crossing about 1 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Connell escaped serious injury, although his leg was badly bruised and he was scared half to death.

Connell was on his way home when the accident occurred. He stopped his horse at the railroad crossing to allow a freight train to pass and as it cleared the crossing, he whipped up his horse and started across the track.

He did not hear the approach of the passenger train and not until he was fairly on the track did he notice it. Then the big monster was almost on top of him. The next instant there was a crash and the air in the vicinity of the railroad was filled with flying debris, horses and men.

When things settled, McConnell was stunned, but otherwise uninjured except a bruised leg. His horse was not injured, but the vehicle was completely demolished.

A hurry call was sent for the patrol wagon and Mr. Connell was taken to his home.

CLERK CONFESSED TO THEFT OF $10,000

Washington, April 19.—The mystery concerning the disappearance of a packet containing $10,000 in currency, in transit by mail from the Atlantic National bank of this city to Chemical National bank of New York, was cleared up by the arrest at the instance of postoffice inspectors of Edward A. Nelson, 27, employed in the railway mail service. Nelson, whose home is in this city, made a complete confession. His run was between Wilmington and Rock Mount, N. C. Most of the money was found under Nelson's house, where he had buried it.

SOME SPEAKERS AT PEACE CONGRESS

New York, April 19.—Academic philosophy and college songs were in contest for the plaudits of the audience at the Peace Congress in Carnegie Hall. It was classed as the "university meeting," and representatives of the first grade institutions in Europe and America were on the platform.

Columbia and Harvard glee clubs were there also. It is no reflection on the profound speeches of the professors, but a compliment to the excellence of the singing to say the glee clubs got the favor of the audience.

ISAAC BOUNDS DROPPED DEAD AT NEIGHBORS IN JACKSONTOWN

One of the Best Known Men in Licking County
Suddenly Called to Eternal Rest
Friday Morning

Had Been Suffering for Over a Year With Heart Trouble
But When the End Came He Was Apparently In His Usual Health.

Jacksontown, O., April 19.—This place was the scene of great excitement when it became known on the streets that Mr. Isaac Bounds, one of our most prominent and highly respected citizens, had dropped dead at the home of Marion Bumerat, while on his way to the postoffice about 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Mr. Bounds was, apparently, in the enjoyment of his usual health, although he had been suffering with heart trouble for more than a year, and his death was due to this cause. Arrangements for the funeral have not been made as yet.

and was probably one of the best known men in Licking county, having travelled extensively through the country for a number of years. He was born in Jacksontown, and upon arriving at manhood engaged in the drug business and for a time conducted a store on the west side of the public square, Newark, about 25 years ago. After being in the drug business for a number of years he removed to Philadelphia and after remaining there for a time returned to Jacksontown, where he remained until his death. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carrie Bounds.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK WAS FELT TODAY IN CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA

Charleston, W. Va., April 19.—Earthquake shock was distinctly felt here early today. A very perceptible wave motion from east to west was noted. No damage resulted but grave fears were raised that there might be succeeding and greater shocks. Fear of a tidal wave following was general. The shock was most distinctly felt at Somerville, a health resort, 20 miles from here, which seemed to be the center of the seismic agitation.

BANK RUBBERS BLEW SAFE ESCAPED ON HAND CAR

Mr. Montgomery is a thorough and successful business man, and his efforts in various business ventures have met with uniform success.

WEHRLE STOVE CO. WILL ADD TWO HUNDRED MEN TO FORCE AT BIG FOUNDRY NEXT MONDAY

Official announcement was made to The Advocate, Friday afternoon, that the Wehrle Company will add about 200 more men to the working force of the big foundry on Monday next.

Of this number 100 will be molders and the remainder will have positions in the other departments of the big foundry.

This will make three cupolas in operation, and the indications are that the stove foundry will soon be working at its maximum capacity.

This announcement will be received with pleasure by every citizen of Newark, as it doubtless means that the company has disposed of its surplus stock, and is about ready to go ahead in its old time vigorous fashion. The Wehrle plant is one of the most important industries of Newark, and it plays an important part in the business affairs of the city.

RELATIVES WILL CONTEST THE WILL OF "SILENT SMITH," THE MILLIONAIRE

New York, April 19.—A prominent lawyer today admitted that he had been employed by one of the relatives of the late "Silent" Smith with a view to contesting the will of the eccentric financier who died in Japan recently while on his honeymoon, leaving an estate estimated at $50,000,000.

James Henry Smith earned the title "Silent" through his mysterious personality which made him the enigma of Wall street. Even his most intimate friends knew practically nothing of his past life. Eight years ago he inherited $55,000,000 from his father's cousin, of whom he always spoke as his uncle and went in for society, but even then remained silent as to himself.

Through investigation made since his death Smith's friends learned today who his relatives are. His mother, Mrs. Beatrice Smith, 60 years old lives at 1220 Bridge avenue, Evanston, Ill. Lady Mary Cooper of London, a sister, is on her way to America. Others sisters, Mrs. Victoria Rossback and Mrs. J. N. Mills, both live in Evanston, Ill. Geo. A. Smith a brother lives in Philadelphia. Two nephews are Wm. S. Mason, of Evanston, and George G. Mason of Aberdeen, S. D. Mrs. Frederick P. Voss of Evanston, is a niece. The New York attorney refused to say by which relative he was employed, as he said no action would be taken till after the funeral, when the body arrives in this country.

Smith's intimate friends profess to know that he divided his big estate so equitably that no one could complain. Many believe however, that he left nearly all of it to his widowed bride whom he married in Scotland, immediately after she obtained a divorce from Rhinelander Stewart, one of the "400."

REV. THOS. WARNER MADE MODERATOR

AND MADE AN ADDRESS BEFORE CHURCH CONFERENCE AT MARYSVILLE.

Quarterly Meeting of Welsh Calvinistic Methodist Church Will be Held in Newark.

The Central Ohio Conference of Congregational churches held its semi-annual meeting at Marysville on April 16 and 17. Rev. Thomas H. Warner, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, was elected moderator. He also gave an address on the topic, "The Need of Greater Efficiency in Religious Instruction." The principal item of interest was the discussion on the union of the Congregational, United Brethren and Methodist Protestant churches, led by Dr. Washington Gladden, moderator of the National Council. The discussion lasted two hours, and not a voice was raised against the proposed union.

No services will be held at the First Congregational church on Sunday morning, so that all may have an opportunity to attend the quarterly meeting at the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church. The Sunday school will be held as usual.

New York assembly passed with but one dissenting vote the bill providing for a flat rate of 2 cents a mile on all railroads in the state.

After 17 years as pastor of the First Universalist church, Columbus, Ohio, Rev. E. L. Rexford tendered his resignation, effective July 21. He has not accepted any call.

The Bishop of Digne stated recently in the Paris Gaulois that, while some of the priests are now living on their savings, others are supporting themselves by mending watches, making beehives and knitting jerseys.
The population of London is rapidly reaching the seven million mark.

Long before the Christian era, Augustus Caesar erected extensive marble baths at the mysterious springs of Aachen (Aix-la-Chapelle), Germany.

Thither noblemen and ladies journeyed in order to experience the healing and beautifying touch of these wonderful waters.

Today, the beauty-giving salts of these Baths of Aachen are ready for your daily toilet in the form of Veroform Toilet Soap—the exquisite production of a great German scientist. This is the quintessence of the waters of Aachen. It is a dainty cleanser and beautifier, imparting to the skin the bloom of health and to the complexion the freshness of youth.

veroform toilet soap

The most exquisite toilet soap that ever was made, even if it had no medicinal value.

The most effective medicinal soap that ever was made, even if it had no special merits for the daily toilet.

Sold at All Leading Stores

Besides Veroform Toilet Soap in cakes described above, there is also made Veroform Toilet Soap Liquid—absolutely neutral, antiseptic and non-irritating. Veroform Toilet Soap Liquid is ideal for shampooing, leaving the scalp in aseptic condition and the hair perfectly clean, with its natural gloss. In the nursery, Veroform Toilet Soap Liquid, sprinkled in the water, prevents eczema and chafing, and keeps the baby sweet and healthy. For the sleeping car and hotel toilet the hygienic advantages of Veroform Toilet Soap Liquid over cake soaps are instantly recognized.

Young Ladies, Attention.

The great exposition voting contest is on and will continue till June 27. Now is the time to enter. Talk to your friends about it, then send in your application properly indorsed. Of course the Advocate reserves the right to reject any application.

The Contestants.

Many extra papers were sold last night to people who were anxious to see the list of contestants in the Advocate. But there is plenty of room in the list for other young ladies of the right kind. Those who have applied and who are entered are the right kind and the Advocate is exceedingly proud of them.

Value of Ballots.

"Will the coupons, single and special, have the same value all through the Advocate's contest?" inquired a subscriber who stopped at this office today to pay a year's subscription and cast 1000 votes for his favorite candidate. Yes, indeed. The ballots on the last day, June 27, will have the same value as today.

Now is the Time.

The votes begin falling into the Advocate's ballot box Friday morning and they came from all directions, by mail and otherwise. The young ladies are receiving support from sources where they least expected. It is by no means too late. Inquire for particulars, talk to your friends and get busy. The way your friends will rally to your support will astonish you.

Paving an Alley.

Messrs. Brennan & Nutter have the contract for paving the alley running from the square to Fourth street, south of the Franklin bank. The property owners have decided to do the paving and the city has been called upon to pave the intersections. The Board of Service has already decided to contract with Messrs. Brennan & Nutter for the intersection work and grading. The work is now in progress.

Released From Custody.

Messrs. A. E. and I. T. Sterrett, the two young men who were arrested here last Monday night upon the request of Zanesville police, have been released from custody there. In explaining their arrest the young men state that they purchased clothing from a credit company in Zanesville, agreeing to pay $5 per month for the goods. When they came to Newark, the dealer who sold them the clothes caused their arrest. The case has been settled and the young men were not prosecuted. They deny that they made any false representations in getting possession of the goods.

Forgot Important Tools.

Henry Laufer, the well known carpenter is being joked by his friends for his forgetfulness. He has been working for Contractor Joseph Stasel and was assigned to do some work in Hanover. Early Thursday morning he boarded an interurban car and went to Hanover with his kit of tools, but when he got there he found he had forgotten a pair of pincers, the very tool he needed. Instead of getting a pair in the village, Henry came clear to Newark and decided that he would lay off the balance of the day.

In honor of the eighteenth anniversary of the birth of Miss Annie Klopfer, a social reception will be held at her residence on Fourth street this evening.

DENY DISCREPANCY IN THE ACCOUNTS AT MADISON, WIS.

Madison, Wis., April 19.—Rumors that a discrepancy of $400,000 has been found in the accounts of the University of Wisconsin are emphatically denied by President Vanhise and Regents Magnus Swenson of Madison and Pliny Norcross of Janesville. No shortage or discrepancy of any kind exists they say, the only thing wrong being an error in book-keeping.

Some time ago these university regents employed an expert to go over the books of the university. He found that investments amounting to about $400,000 had not been credited to the capital. According to the story of the regents this was simply an error of judgment in book-keeping and the expert recommended a change in the manner in which the books are kept.

WEDDINGS.

McCULLOUGH-ROFFEY.

A very pretty wedding was held at the home of the bride, West Main street, on Thursday, April 18, when Mr. David Leroy McCullough and Miss Madge Pearl Roffey were united in marriage, in the presence of a large number of friends.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas H. Warner, pastor of the First Congregational church. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Anna Jones and Mr. Edward R. Roffey.

After the ceremony the wedding supper was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. H. Roffey, Mr. and Mrs. Root, Mr. and Mrs. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. L. Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. Marriott, Mr. E. Roffey, Mr. R. Berger, Misses Anna and Mayme Jones, Miss C. Root, Miss S. H. Beaumont, Rev. and Mrs. T. H. Warner, of Newark; Mrs. L. A. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. L. Penn, Mr. and Mrs. W. Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fowler, Miss M. Coulter, Mr. G. Coulter, Mr. H. Fowler, Mrs. J. R. Ladd, Miss Flora Graves of Alexandria, Mrs. Harry and Master Wade Ladd of Toledo, and Dr. G. W. Roffey and Mrs. N. Reader of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. McCullough are excellent young people and have the best wishes of their many friends. They were the recipients of many useful presents. They will live at their new home on North Williams street.

GOVERNMENT COSTS TOO MUCH.

The state of Wisconsin is about to erect a new capitol building at a proposed cost of from four to six million dollars. As such things go, perhaps the trifling of two millions difference in the figures given is not worthy of consideration, especially when it is understood that the state of Wisconsin has plenty of money on hand.

A correspondent, in describing the glories of the proposed new capitol, says that the state is able to build it at this time because of the large sums which Wisconsin legislation has recently diverted from the coffers of the corporations of the state into the state treasury. This proceeding is said to have afforded the people of that commonwealth great relief from taxation.

This may look to some persons like the economy of true statesmanship, but there are common, every-day citizens who may be tempted to inquire what right any state has to assess taxes upon either the people or the corporation, for the purpose of squandering $6,000,000 on a public building. As long as such crimes against the taxpayers, both individual and corporate, continue to be the rule, the state must practice extortion in some direction in order to make the extravagance possible. It is no apology to say that the corporations pay the cost. Why should they or anybody else pay it?

The fact is that in the majority of states the amount of revenue necessary to be raised in order to carry on the government is estimated on the basis of all that it is possible to expend for a specific purpose after the money has been collected. The object is to get money—not much difference how, but "get it." Of course, there is no way to spend it until it is in hand, but after that there is no restraint upon the spending of it. And so great reformers inspire legislation to squeeze great sums from great corporations, whenever the people rebel against such taxation, and the fact that the people do not directly pay the cost is set up as not only the excuse for, but the justification of, public expenditures entirely beyond reason.

Government costs too much in this country. The expense of administering it is often in excess of the benefits derived, when there are any. The six-million-dollar state capitol in the modest little city of Madison, Wis., will look like a forty-thousand-dollar diamond in the shirt bosom of a two-dollar man. It will be a lasting evidence of republican degeneracy, and it will not suffice as an apology for its existence to say that it was paid for by the corporations.—Editorial: The Ohio Magazine, February, 1907.

ATTORNEY GENERAL ELLIS

Suggests a Safeguard Against State Extravagance.

Danger to a state in securing all its revenue from excise or privilege taxes, was shown by Attorney General Wade H. Ellis, in an address before the Commercial club on "Taxation." He argued that the people would, to a large extent, lose their touch with the state government, if they made no direct contribution to its support through the medium of taxes.

To avoid the danger the speaker suggested that the legislature levy an annual assessment against the counties equal to about 10 per cent of the cost of operating the state government. This assessment to be divided in proportion to the amount of taxes raised by each county for county purposes. The attorney general suggested that this would serve all practical results of entirely separating state from local taxation, while at the same time it has many commendable features of its own.

Xenia, O.

TAXATION REVISION IN MANY STATES

Bills to create tax commissions are pending before the general assembly of the following states: Alabama, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Oregon and Wyoming. In some of the states these bills have been made laws, and the probability is that bills will be enacted by a majority of the states, if not by all of them. This shows conclusively that the problem of how to improve the state and local taxation system is a question of vital and urgent importance in nearly every state in the Union.

Principles of taxation, like all economic principles, are universal in their application. Work done in one state may be made useful in all other states. By making investigations and guiding discussion on similar lines, and then comparing results, the people in each state can help all other states and be helped by what all other states accomplish.

BEFORE AND AFTER.

Maps Illustrating the Change Brought About by the London County Council Election.

AS IT WAS.

In this map of London the old boundaries indicate that part of London having a "moderate" or anti-municipal ownership representation in the county council before the recent election, the white that part having "Progressive" representation, which has governed the world's metropolises for eighteen years and almost bankrupted it with municipally operated street cars and other enterprises, and the shaded portion indicates divided representation.

AS IT IS.

In this map, also, black indicates "moderate," white "Progressive," and shading divided representation in the council. The contrast in the two maps is remarkable. They show much more graphically than words or figures could how complete has been the change in London's sentiment. The maps are copied from the London Daily Graphic.

IT WOULD END THE UNIONS.

Would Strikes Be Reasonable Under Public Ownership?

About two-thirds of the people clamoring for government ownership of railroad lines, telegraph and express companies are either members of labor organizations or closely identified or in sympathy with their cause. Do these men know that government ownership means the end of labor organizations? The government recognizes no interference or disturbance of its plans and arrangements. It has its multiples of red tape, and the man in its employ must work to the letter and have nothing to say. When a man doesn't like a government job, he never hears of any riotous demonstrations when he gets separated from it. He simply takes his medicine and the few faces he makes over it have little effect.

When the government manages and controls its system, it tells its employees what to do and when to do it, and it tells them what it pays, and there are no presents. No medals go to government employees.

You never heard of a strike in the army, navy or postoffice department, yet the government is the poorest paymaster in the world. It pays less wages and less frequently than any other great corporation. It pays when it pleases and what it pleases, and your conduct and sayings are subject to investigation upon slight provocation.

If there is any class of men who should fight desperately and to the last ditch in opposition to government or municipal ownership, it is the great labor organizations of the country.—Editorial in Burlington (Ia.) Gazette.

A Unique Recommendation.

The question of purchasing the waterworks having arisen in Salem, O., a conference meeting of committees appointed by the Business Men's association and the Manufacturers' association and the ordinance committee of the council was held, at which the president of the board of public service was also present. After voting against municipal ownership, with but a single dissenting vote, the following remarkable resolution was unanimously passed:

Whereas, It is apparent to this meeting that the water company has not during the term of its franchise just passed been able to pay to its stockholders a reasonable return on their investment, and

Whereas, It is the sense of this meeting that they are entitled to same; therefore be it

Resolved, That we hereby recommend that the city grant such reasonable increase in rates in its new franchise as will give to the company a net profit of 6 per cent on its present capital stock.

Three Setbacks in Michigan.

Municipal ownership got a setback in three villages in Michigan in Monday's election. Bellevue voted against electric light and waterworks plant. Davison voted down a proposition to build for an electric light plant, and Potomac voted against a municipal bakery.—Michigan Taver.

Peru's Impaired Electric Plant.

The city council of Peru, Ind., is considering making a contract for current with a private company in order to avoid spending $15,000 on the city lighting plant, which is impaired condition makes necessary if it is to be kept in service.

Experts at Cooking Accounts.

If there is anything in which the exponents and advocates of public ownership have shown themselves expert, it is in the art of keeping books so as to show that public ownership pays even when it does not.—New York Evening Sun.

BOYISH DESIRE FOR WORK.

Often a Sign of Arrested Development Instead of Strength.

Parents often think that their son is especially promising because he wants to get to work young, wants to leave school and be earning. This is never a sign of strength, but always of weakness. When a boy wants to get to work instead of getting ready to work it indicates arrested development.

There is not one probability in fifty that a boy who desires to leave school at the sixth grade and is allowed to do so will ever amount to anything. It is not the fact that he does not have as much education as the other boys, but that he does not have their purpose to get ready for the doing of things.

Teachers often greatly err in dealing with such boys and their parents by trying to show how important it is that they should know what they will learn in the seventh and eighth grades, whereas that is the least part of it. It is a case of arrested development usually, and this is what should be treated, treated as a disease.

We make a lot of talk about defective sight and hearing, and we do well, but it is vastly more important that we "get busy" in defective mental progressive development. There is a near-sightedness of parents and pupils that is criminal. It contributes to delinquency and, as I think, is within the status of and subject to court punishment.

It sometimes shows itself in diverted attention, in dissipated interest and often in overathletic or fraternity zeal. The college theory is that the fraternity chaps are the elect, but life does not show that. The data are imperfect at present, but there is enough to make it wholly probable that when the figures are in it will be clearly shown that in the last fifteen years when fraternity life has been extra social and extra political in clamorousness much of the fraternity zeal indicates approaching arrested development. It is entirely clear already that this is characteristic of the high school fraternity, because it almost invariably means that a set of fellows dare not trust themselves to win honors in the open contest, but seek it as a favor from means of a little band of social high-women, as many of these high school fraternities are.—Journal of Education.

on the program was the decoration of Peary's methods of discovering the Pole, was better adapted to com-

Wellman goes in a balloon, and can't be accompanied by an excursion party.
It was mistakenly supposed that the business of promoting summer covery.

peace only when coupled with right-

The announcement that Malcolm Jennings of the Lancaster Gazette has declared for Taft as against Foraker is significant. Mr. Jennings' friends claim that he resembles Napoleon more than McKinley did.

Some people seem to think that there is no Presidential timber in the forest except Theodore Roosevelt and William Jennings Bryan. But Senator
Scott of West Virginia, suggests that if Taft gets fairly started on the Presidential track it can well be said that "there is plenty more good material."

Regarding the contention in the New Hampshire courts over the property of Mrs. Eddy, the Christian Science leader, it is pointed out that there was no such contention in A. D. 1.

It is the worst predictions of the

GRAND INSPIRATION FROM DYING WORDS OF CAPTAIN LEMERT

Editor Advocate:—I might be of interest to your readers to know that 25 years ago the ex-prisoners of war met in Newark and there was organized the Andersonville Prisoners of War Prayer Meeting, and prisoners of war know that a man drilled in praying in prison is different from one drilled in praying in a Sunday school.

The ex-prisoners' association is not absolutely a religious organization, but it has a chaplain who learned religious duties, obedience and loyalty in the prison pens in the Southland.

It might be of interest to say that Lemert Post, No. 71, G. A. R., is named after Captain Lemert of Co.
A., 76th O. V. I., who was killed on the battlefield and he gave the grandest words ever uttered by any man as his last words to his comrades:
"Our fathers died for this country;
why not I?" And these will be printed and framed and hung over his picture in the Post room as an inspiration to all our comrades and all citizens

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

Increase in Rates.

The increased railroad rates on grain, from the west will not go into effect until May 1. This is the first time in many years that railroads have raised rates on grain at the opening of navigation. Usually there is a reduction in rates at that time to compete with water transportation. The increased rates are said to be in retaliation for the action of the legislatures in the central west in reducing passenger freight rates. The railroad magnates should remember that retaliation can be played by more than one side.

No Attempt at Wrecking.

Pennsylvania officials investigated the report that attempts were made at Canton, O., Sunday night to wreck passenger trains. The following statement was authorized:

"A trackwalker outside of Canton was stoned and his lantern broken. He immediately reported the facts to officials of the line who informed the police. A careful examination was made of all the tracks in the vicinity of the stoning, and they were found to be in perfect condition. There was no indication that any one had tried to tamper with them in any way. The statement that the trackwalker found the rails disjoined and replaced them just previous to the passing of a train is incorrect. It is the belief of the trackwalker himself and the officials that the stoning was done by a gang of drunken roughs who had a personal grievance against the trackwalker.

Railroad Notes.

The B. & O. car shops, now located at Mont Clair, Md., may be removed from that place to Chicago Junction, O., where the company is now negotiating for a small piece of land.

Every passenger train on the entire Pennsylvania system is to be renumbered. The officials figured on having the numbers changed when the new schedule becomes effective, June 1, but it now seems that this will be impossible. Under the new arrangement there will be a special series of numbers for all through passenger trains. The lines west will have a series for each branch, and the lines east will have another series, the general arrangement to be similar to that on a number of freight cars.

GAS FUTURE POWER.

Dr. McGee Predicts That It Will Take the Place of Steam.

ALSO URGES INLAND CANAL.

Says Railroads Have Reached Their Limit of Capacity With Steam Locomotives—Imperative Needs of the Great Mississippi Valley.

Substitution of gas for steam as a universal motive power of railroad and marine transportation was predicted by Dr. W. J. McGee of St. Louis in a talk before the members of the City club, says the Chicago Tribune.

Dr. McGee, who is a member of the national waterways commission appointed by President Roosevelt and one of the leading geologists of the country, spoke on the "Control of Our Inland Waterways." He declared that the railroads of the country have reached their capacity and that the coal supply is being rapidly depleted as a result of the tremendous demand for fuel in modern industry.

The substitution of gas for steam, he said, will work an enormous saving of coal in that one ton of coal will produce as much energy for a gas engine as three tons of coal will produce used as fuel in the production of steam.

He also urged the construction of a complete system of inland waterways in order that the manufacturing and commercial interests of the interior of the country might have adequate transportation facilities for the annually increasing products.

"Hitherto the Atlantic and the Pacific seaboard have controlled the policy of this country," said Dr. McGee. "It is now up to the people of the interior to demand their share of improvements. This must consist in the improvement of the great inland waterways."

"The Mississippi valley is the greatest empire in the world and contains half of the people of this nation. They are dependent upon transportation for the success or failure of their business."

In speaking of the substitution of gas for steam as motive power, Dr. McGee said that Lewis Nixon, one of the leading shipbuilders of the country, now is building an ocean liner at Elizabeth, N. J., designed to cross the Atlantic in four days, with gas as the propelling power. "The new liner, he said, will carry only 40 per cent of the coal needed on a steam propelled liner."

"The railroads have reached their capacity with steam," continued Dr. McGee. "Also there is not enough iron mined in the United States to supply the rails needed for adequate railroad transportation. Neither is there enough labor to mine the iron needed."

"Ten tons of rails are required to the mile, and when we know that there are approximately 200,000 miles of road in the United States we can begin to form some sort of an idea of the quantity of rails needed."

"There is $17,000,000,000 invested in the railroads of this country. A tenth of that sum spent on our waterways would equip the finest waterways transportation system in the world."

"Here are twenty states with a population of more than 40,000,000 people, half of the population of the nation, absolutely dependent upon transportation for success or failure. Our interests are identical. It is up to us to stand together and demand our just share of the improvements."

"The richest agricultural land in the world is the bottom lands of the Mississippi valley, from the mouth of the Ohio river to the gulf of Mexico. Every year there are washed 400,000,000 tons of sediment from these lands into the great river, which in turn carries the soil wash to the gulf. That is two and one-half times as much soil as is to be dug out of the Panama canal."

"The days of steam as a motive power are numbered. Gas will take its place. The energy in coal will be enormously economized by the use of gas engines both in railroad and marine transportation. The coal fields of the country are rapidly being depleted by the demand for fuel in modern industry, and the saving of coal by the use of gas would be a great economy."

"A great saving of coal also can be made in the use of water power. There is enough water power going to waste in the United States to supply power to half of the industries of the nation. The redemption of swamp lands in the lower Mississippi valley will raise the value of the land from $100 to $400 an acre."

"The improvements could be started with a working capital of only a few hundred million dollars. Lock tolls and other charges would pay for the improvements or at least make them self sustaining. The work could be done with one-tenth of the cost of the railroads."

Cement Telegraph Poles.

Telegraph poles made of cement, with an iron rod through the center to insure against breakage, are the latest novelties in railroad and telegraphic construction. Officers of the telegraph and operating departments of the Pennsylvania lines and of the Western Union Telegraph company recently inspected poles made of this material in a test yard at Rochester, Pa. Manufacturers of these poles will form a new industry for the Pittsburgh district.

"The Country Judge" at the Orphium had a hard time last night. Just 20 minutes before time for the Beauregard to make their appearance in their clever little play, Mrs. Beauregard was taken seriously ill, with a throat affection. It was up to the other two members of the company to do the work of the three, and they did it, too. One who had viewed the performance as given until last night, would have thought it a most clever act, and great credit is due to the manner in which the gaps occasioned by the absence of one of the number were filled. Mrs. Beauregard will perform as usual tonight at both performances, and the play will be given in its entirety.

Manager Leason announces for tonight in the amateur contests, Grace Elder, Elsie Boner and Guy Saunders, who each have rehearsed clever turns.

SCENES AT OPENING OF AMERICAN LEAGUE BASEBALL SEASON AT NEW YORK.

JUNIORS WON FROM SENIORS

FINAL BASKETBALL GAME OF THE SEASON WAS CLOSE AND EXCITING.

Good Guarding of Misses Beecher and Miller Kept Score Very Low—Six Points Scored.

Revenge, sweet revenge, came to the Junior girls of the local high school last night when they defeated the Senior girls at the Armory by a score of four to two. The game was fast and the excellent guarding of Miss Miller and Miss Beecher was responsible for the low score on both sides.

Every girl on the floor was in the game for keeps and no opportunity was lost to get in defensive work. The points in the game were scored by Misses Vale, Hall and Woodward, each one throwing a basket from the field. The line-up:

Juniors—1. Miss Vale, 2. Miss Nichols, 3. Miss Woodward, 4. Miss Beecher, 5. Miss Miller, 6. Miss Hall, 7. Miss Jones, 8. Miss Doney, 9. Miss Henthorne, 10. Miss Hall.

Field goals: Miss Vale, Miss Hall, Miss Woodward.

Referee: Smatt. Umpire: Bell. Timer: L. Beecher. Scorer: N. Beecher.

It was decided to hold the banquet next Wednesday evening in the Music Hall opera house.

The treasurer was notified to instruct each team and its members that they would not be eligible to attend the banquet unless all dues were paid up in full.

Messrs. J. McGough, J. O. Johnson and Noel Armstrong were appointed as an auditing committee to audit the books of the secretary treasurer and report the same to the league.

Vice President Homer Jones presided over the meeting.

Diamonds in His Shoes.

Diamond ornaments in shoes hark back to the days of the Revolutionary war and were worn by merchants of Boston in those days. Thomas Russell of Charlestown, who died in 1796, was one of the most active of business men of his day in Boston and the first to engage in the American trade with Russia after the Revolution. His dress was typical of his time and is thus described in an old print: "He usually wore a coat of some light colored cloth, small clothes, diamond buckles at the knees and in the shoes, silk stockings, powdered hair and a cocked hat and in cold weather a scarlet cloak."—Boston Herald.

DOG LOSES LIFE TO SAVE OWNER.

New York, April 19.—Carrie was only a dog, but she was a good one and proved herself a heroine. Her death is mourned today by little Emilie Schilling of Cranberry street, Brooklyn, N. Y. Had it not been for Carrie, who was an Irish terrier, Emilie would have been crushed under the wheels of the same truck that ground out the life of the dog.

Clutching the collar of the pet dog, which only recently had been given to the family, the girl started to cross Hicks street. She was in the middle of the roadway when the team turned the corner.

Shouting a warning, the driver tried to curb his horses, but his efforts were unavailing. The horses were only a few feet away when the child started forward, and, aided by the momentum as the dog swung her to one side, she rolled over toward the curb.

Before she could regain her feet the truck had passed over the dog.

The name of Miss Clara E. Bucy, 20 South Arch street, is added to the list of contestants today. Miss Bucy lives in the Second district and up to date she has no opposition but several other young ladies in East Newark, south of the center of Main street are considering the matter. Miss Bucy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bucy, her father being very popular in Newark. Miss Bucy is an efficient clerk at the H. H. Griggs Company's store where she is highly esteemed by the company, the clerks and the customers of the store. Miss Bucy's friends will be much pleased by the announcement of her name.

Another young woman who is just announced today is Miss Edna Miller in District No. 9. Miss Miller is the daughter of Mr. Harry G. Miller, manager of the Natural gas office at Granville and lives in the college town but she has the advantage of a wide circle of friends in Newark also. Miss Miller, former stenographer for the law firm of Kibler & Montgomery, is now bookkeeper and stenographer at the Cochran mill in Newark. The Advocate is pleased to number Miss Miller among the contestants.

The demand for Advocate's Thursday evening was unusually heavy as everybody seemed to be anxious to see the first day's nominations in the great Jamestown Exposition-Washington-New York Young Ladies Contest.

This paper has received many compliments upon the high character of the young women whose names are announced and the candidates themselves are much pleased with the good company in which they find themselves. The fact that indorsements are required of each candidate and the announcement that this paper reserves the privilege of rejecting any candidate has served its purpose in keeping out any who might cause others to hesitate about entering the friendly race.

When the ballot box in the Advocate's office was put in commission Friday morning there was a heavy vote cast and the coupons clipped from the paper have been coming in all day. Friends of the contestants have called to renew their subscription and others who have not been readers of this paper have sent in their subscriptions for six months or a year. One contestant telephoned that a friend had promised her two years' subscription to the daily edition, which means 2,000 votes.

A number of the best known young ladies of the city are now going among their friends to "feel the pulse" and decide whether to enter. They see by the list announced in this paper that there is plenty of opportunity to win and they will enter providing they have the assurance of the support of their friends. One of the contestants who called upon a few of her friends Thursday reported that she was surprised at the ease with which she made progress. In every instance she was gladly promised support. All whom she saw agreed to take the paper or if now taking it, to pay their subscription in advance. This contestant had anticipated more of an effort and was prepared to work but she finds the effort a pleasure instead of work.

The contest is just starting out and everybody knows that this is the time to get busy. He (or she) who hesitates, you know the rest. Send in your application today.

The Advocate's party of ten young ladies and the chaperon (to be selected by the contestant getting the largest vote) will go on a fine train to

Washington, take in the sights of the capital and after a night's rest proceed by steamer to the exposition. There the guests of the paper will see sights they never saw before even if they attended the Chicago or St. Louis expositions. The Jamestown Exposition will be in many ways greater than any of its predecessors and it will offer to visitors pleasures never dreamed of. A whole week will be given over to enjoyment of the occasion and the party will probably stop at the famous Inside Inn, or if not there at some hotel equally as attractive. This detail remains to be arranged. After the Exposition comes the great trip to New York for the young lady standing first in the contest. Her chaperon will then accompany her on this extra trip and the party will return home in the same splendid style as on the going trip. Nothing will be too good for the Advocate's guests on the great trip.

This is a prize worth striving for and it is no wonder the young ladies are all interested. A Jamestown Exposition doesn't come along every year and neither does the opportunity of seeing such an exposition for nothing. The young ladies will not need their pocketbooks on this trip. The votes have just begun to fall and they will be carefully checked and

TRIPS BY LAND AND SEA

Think of the great sights of a life time, that the fortunate young ladies will be enabled to witness.

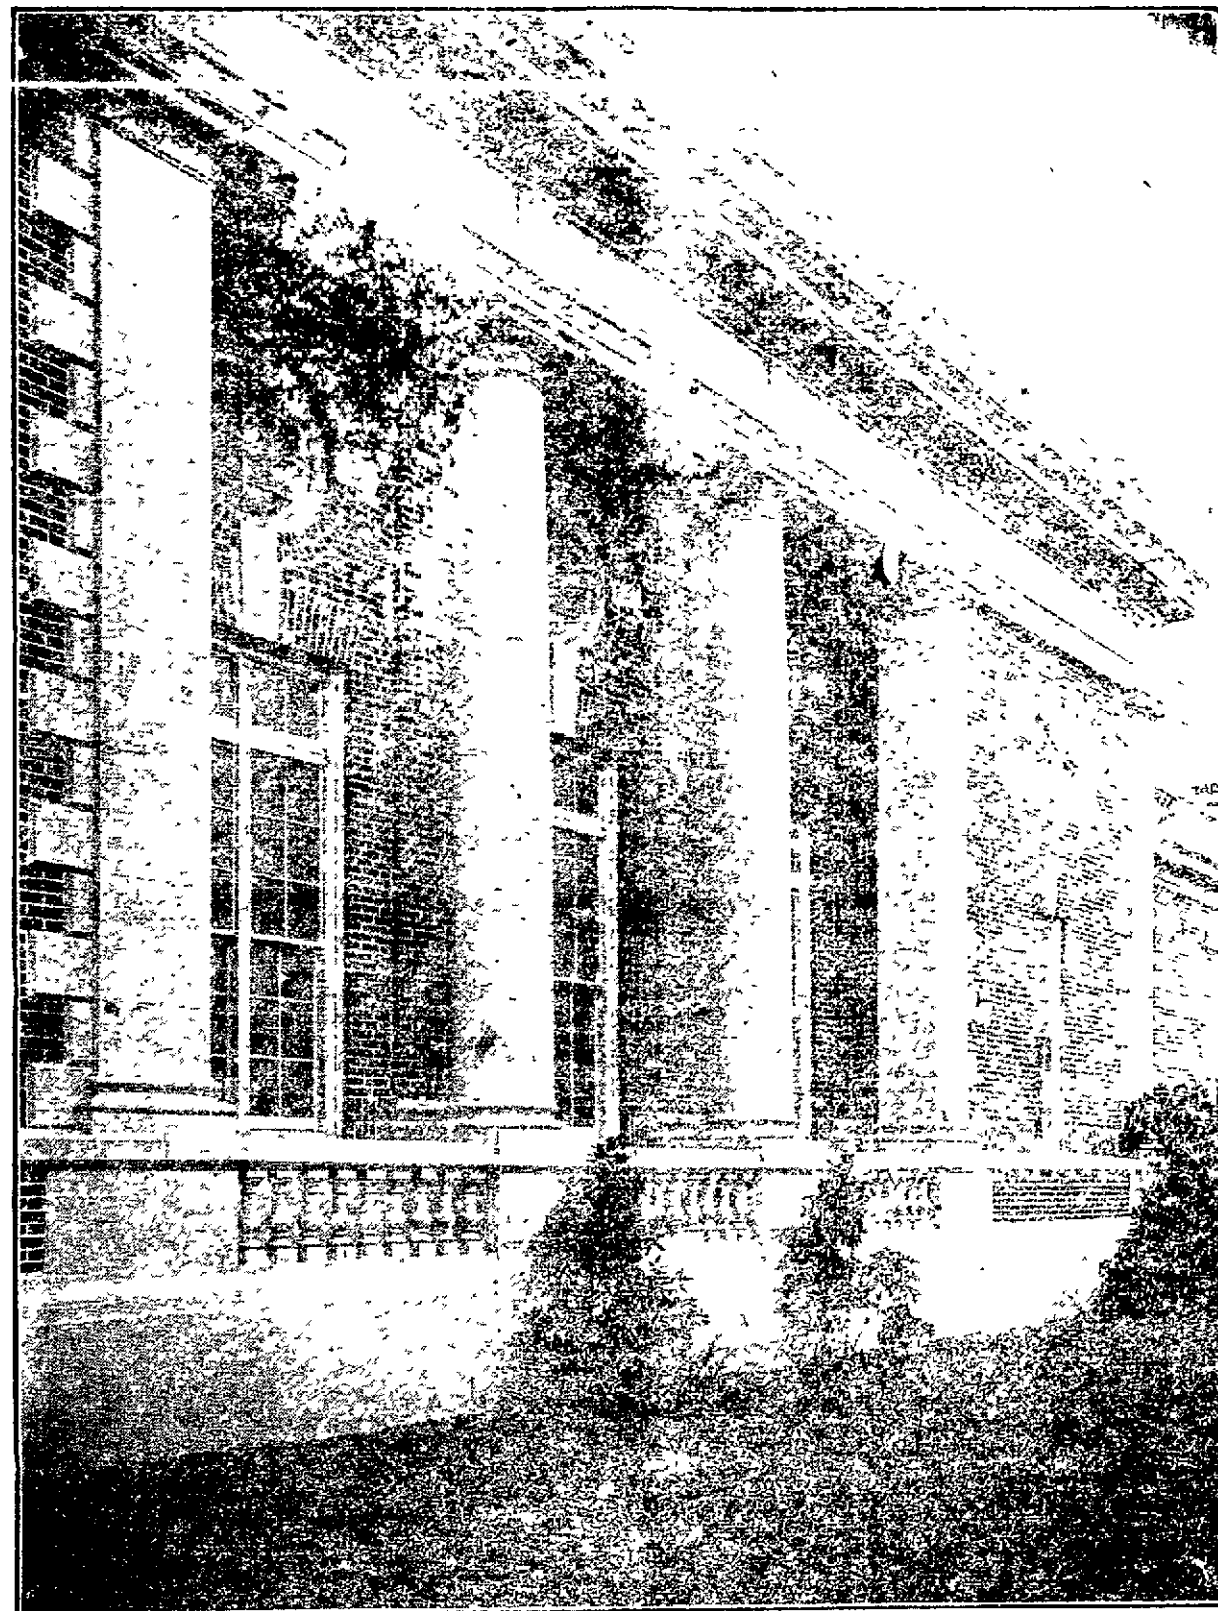

One continual round of pleasure from the very moment they start on these grand tours, until our happy guests return to their homes.

Not a dull moment, not a second without pleasure of some kind. Not the smallest amusement will be missed. To our "Young Tourists" it will be a case of on the go all the time, and such arrangements have been made, by carriage and coach, in transporting the young ladies from one place of interest to another, that they will suffer no fatigue whatever, and will enjoy the panorama constantly being unfolded, with all the comforts of travel that money and influence can possibly procure.

BE ONE OF THE PARTY.

And why not be one of the party? The trip is yours for the mere reaching out and embracing this wonderful offer. All you will have to do is to enroll and ask your acquaintances to help you. They will appreciate and welcome the opportunity to do so.

There is plenty of time and the prizes are surely worth the "going after." Your chances are just as good as any one's else. The main qualification to win is "Stick-to-itiveness." You can do it. GET IN AND WIN.

preserved for inspection by all of the contestants. Each special ballot is indorsed by two people at this office who receive the subscription and enter the figures in the vote ledger. Receipts and coupons are numbered and can not be voted unless they are properly indorsed. "Singles" are stamped so that it is impossible to vote them more than once. The candidates and their friends will have access to the books at all times. The contest ends June 27.

The first announcement of the vote will be printed April 27 and daily after that date.

Now is the time to enter and to secure subscribers and coupons. If you are thinking of it, ask some contestant in a district other than your own. She will tell you to "get in" and will assure you that the little effort required is real pleasure. There is a separate contest in each district. Six Newark girls will enjoy the trip and four from the country districts will also have the same pleasure. You might as well be one of this happy party of ten. Call on or address the Contest Manager at this office for further particulars.

"Home" in Our Language.

In no other language, according to the London Telegraph, is there a word expressing the ideas and associations which are aroused at the sound of the simple yet heart touching word "home." A Frenchman once translated Cardinal Newman's hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," and in his hands the beautiful line "The night is dark, and I am far from home," became "La nuit est sombre, et je suis loin de mon foyer," the translator having been obliged to use for home the French word which describes the green room of a theater. The Italian and Spanish "casa," the German "haus"—their "heim" is too general to have any particular value—and the Russian "doma" all refer to a building of some kind or other and have none of the memories and associations that cluster round the precious English word.

CINCINNATI MAN COMMITS SUICIDE AT KANSAS CITY

FIREBEDS UNCOVERED BY GANG OF WORKMEN NEAR PIQUA, BENEATH ASHES.

Postoffice Robbers at London—Principal News of Buckeye State Condensed.

Kansas City, April 19.—S. P. Horwitz, 38, of Cincinnati, committed suicide at the Kupper hotel in this city by drinking carbolic acid. He left a note requesting that Walter Jacobs of this city be notified of his death. Jacobs said that Horwitz had a family in Cincinnati and that his father-in-law, Mannie Bauer, is a prominent iron merchant there. Jacobs had known Horwitz intimately since 1903, when Horwitz was a traveling salesman for a liquor company. The cause of the suicide is not known.

Uncovered Firebeds.

Piqua, O., April 19.—During the excavating for a school building at Houston workmen uncovered three firebeds 18 inches under the surface. The beds are 15 inches in depth and from 6 to 10 feet in diameter, covered with ashes. A human skeleton in a sitting posture was found in the middle one of the beds. When touched the bones crumbled to pieces. The teeth were in a good state of preservation. The spot is supposed to have been the site of an Indian village many years ago.

Columbus to Bellefontaine.

Columbus, O., April 19.—The Columbus, Marysville & Bellefontaine Railway company, capitalized at $25,000, was incorporated here by R. P. Hankey, G. W. Meeker, Emmet Tompkins, Eugene Gray and W. A. France, to construct and operate an electric railway from Columbus to Bellefontaine, passing through Franklin, Union and Logan counties, for the conveyance of passengers, freight and United States mail, with the right to extend.

Body Derailed Train.

Fostoria, O., April 19.—Blocked by the body of James McClure, the rear trucks of a Nickel Plate train were derailed at Arcadia, causing considerable delay. McClure, a bridge foreman for the Nickel Plate, attempted to board the train when it was moving and fell under the wheels. His head was cut off and his body shockingly mangled.

Death in Wallpaper.

Alliance, O., April 19.—Death was caused from inhaling poisonous vapor from wall paper with which she was working, is the verdict in the case of Mrs. Carl Matti, a farmer's wife, who died after a week's intense suffering. Her tongue, lips and tonsils turned coal black the day before she died, and her body was frightfully swollen.

Money Missing.

Cincinnati, O., April 19.—A package containing $1,940 of Pennsylvania railroad funds, billed from the freight department of the road at Springfield to the First National bank, Cincinnati, disappeared from the office of the Adams Express company, in Xenia, three weeks ago, and all efforts to locate it failed.

Work of Cracksmen.

London, O., April 19.—Postoffice robbers visited Mt. Sterling, blew open the safe and secured between $40 and $50 in cash and a number of postage stamps. Carl Klein, a resident of the village, reported his horse and buggy stolen, and it is believed the robbers made their escape at his expense.

Found Loaded Shell.

Columbus, O., April 19.—A loaded four-inch shell was found in the scrap pile at the plant of the Jeffrey Manufacturing company. A strike of molders has been on at the plant for many months. The superintendent of the plant declared his belief that the shell found its way into the scrap by accident.

Mother and Boy Injured.

Marion, O., April 19.—John, the little son of James Dickason of Larue, found three small dynamite caps. He placed them on the kitchen stove. One end of the kitchen was wrecked and the boy and his mother were injured.

Horses on Snow Shoes.

Horses wear snowshoes in Dakota in winter. Thus equipped, they trot lightly over drifts wherein they would otherwise sink out of sight. In some parts of Dakota the snow lies all winter long eight or ten feet deep, but a crust forms on it, and with snowshoes men skim over it easily. So do snowshod horses. The equine snowshoes are made of boards twenty inches long and fourteen inches wide. An indentation to fit the foot is branded on each board with a hot horseshoe, and the contrivance is fastened on to the hoof with an iron clamp and a bolt. After a day or two of practice a Dakota horse becomes an expert snowshoer.

LOCAL OPTION AT UTICA. Utica, O., April 19.—There is every indication that the petition for a local option election for Utica is dead. When the mayor announced that as soon as presented it would be published, with the names affixed, in order that persons not legal voters might be weeded out, there is said to have been some scurrying to get names withdrawn. A counting of noses of the qualified hue gave a suspicion that the "wets" might not be able to carry the election, and rather than chance tying the town up dry for two years more, the movement was abandoned. Utica will remain dry.

Nervous Indigestion

The action of digestion is controlled by nerves leading to the stomach. When they are weak, the stomach is deprived of its energy. It has no power to do its work. If you want permanent relief, you must restore this energy. Dr. Miles' Nervine restores nervous energy, and gives the organs power to perform their functions.

"For many years I was an acute sufferer from nervous indigestion. At times I was so despondent I could almost be a burden. I tried all kinds of remedies and various physicians with little or no relief until one night last summer I saw Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure advertised. I resolved to make one more trial which I did in the purchase of one bottle of Nervine and one of Heart Cure. In a few days I began to feel better, which encouraged me so much that I continued the medicine until I had taken more than a dozen bottles. I am very much improved in every way in body, mind and spirits since I make a special point to recommend the medicine, and I feel a sincere pleasure in knowing that several persons have been benefited through my recommendations."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY GAS COMPANY

The Mohahala Oil and Gas company which was recently formed in this city for the purpose of developing a 2000 acre tract of oil and gas land in Perry county, met Friday in the office of Attorney W. D. Fulton, and elected the following officers and directors: President, Henry Kelso, of Corns; secretary and treasurer, J. J. McGonagle, Corns; Directors, W. D. Fulton, J. J. McGonagle, Thos. Catchpole, Buckingham, O., and Henry Kelso. The process of developing the new field will begin immediately and the members of the company are enthusiastic over the prospects.

Construction Work Begun. Construction work has been begun on the B & O railroad's new bridge at the west end of the yards here. Foreman T. N. Liddick of the Youngstown Construction company, with a large force of men, is engaged in the work of pile driving. Although it will probably be three months before the new bridge is actually in use the improvement will be a welcome one. The construction is such that it can be operated as suggested by some rural school directors who planned to build a new school house of the bricks of the old one, and let the old one stand until the new one was constructed. The resemblance to this plan is in the fact that the old bridge will be used until the concrete sets on the new structure under it, and then the new steel portion can be put in place in less than an hour.

Mother of Harry Thaw Now at Her Home in Pittsburg.

MAY RETAIN SENATOR KNOX

District Attorney Jerome Probing Report That a Thaw Juror Had Been Approached by a Policeman During the Trial—Statement of One of the Prisoner's Counsel.

Pittsburg, April 19.—Accompanied by her daughter, the Countess of Yarmouth, and J. C. Thaw, Mrs. William Thaw, mother of Harry Thaw, arrived here from New York. The Thaws left the train at the East Liberty station and were immediately driven to the family home. Efforts to interview the family were unsuccessful. It is said Mrs. Thaw will remain here for a few days.

Several hours after Mrs. Thaw and the countess arrived at Lyndhurst a large number of trunks were delivered at the Thaw home, and it was learned that Mrs. Thaw is to stay in Pittsburg for some time. It was learned also that Mrs. Thaw has given up hope of having her son released from jail on bail, pending a new trial. A friend of the family said that Mrs. Thaw would consult with Attorney D. T. Watson of this city and another attorney whose name would not be given, but upon intimation was designated as Senator P. C. Knox, who is a close friend of Mrs. Thaw.

14 YEAR OLD GIRL WAS OUTRAGED BY MASKED VILLAINS

Bristol, Tenn., April 19.—At Kingsport, this (Sullivan) county, in the presence of her husband and 14-year-old daughter, Mrs. Frank Belcher was assaulted by two masked white men. With drawn weapons the men entered the Belcher home and compelled Belcher to get out of bed and be tied. The two men then assaulted Mrs. Belcher. One also made an unsuccessful attempt on the girl. Belcher's frantic efforts to get at the men were stopped by a blow on the head which rendered him unconscious, and Mrs. Belcher was also badly beaten and choked. Her condition is critical, that of the girl being also serious.

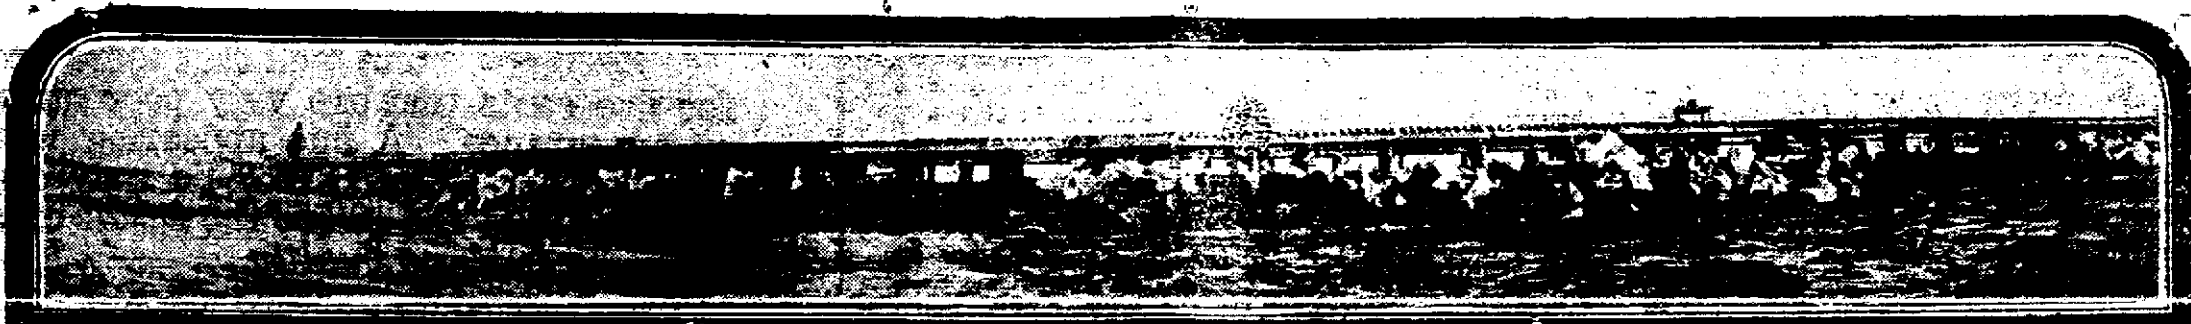

STEPS TAKEN

Toward the Creation of a Federal Health Department.

New York, April 19.—Steps looking to the creation of a new government department at Washington, or a bureau in some department already existing, to deal with the public health, were taken at a meeting of a committee of 100 named last June by the American Association for the Advancement of Science. The meeting was devoted to a general discussion and to the adoption of rules and regulations providing for the creation of an executive committee of seven, in whom hereafter will be vested the prosecution of the movement. The general object of the committee as outlined is the creation of a new department, to have supervision over such matters as infant hygiene, school situation, pure food, drugs and drug manufacturers, and the registration of physicians and druggists.

DEADLOCK EXISTS IN WISCONSIN

Madison, Wis., April 19.—A deadlock exists in the contest for United States senator, occasioned by the resignation of Senator Spooner. After holding of several caucuses by the Republican members of the legislature, who are in the majority, and the taking of two formal ballots in joint session, there appears to be no indication of election in the near future. There are 10 candidates, five of whom lead with about an equal number of votes. Isaac Stephenson, the wealthy lumberman of Marinette, and who has been a staunch supporter of Senator La Follette both on state and national issues, in joint ballot showed a strength of 10 votes, being tied by Congressman Esch of Lacrosse, Lenroot of Superior, and also a strong adherent of La Follette, received 18 votes, as did also Congressman Cooper of Racine.

A FATAL FIRE IN A LAUNDRY IN MONTREAL

Montreal, April 19.—Fire in the plant of the Canada Steam laundry caused the loss of three lives, two men and a woman, and the injury of 12 others, one of whom, a woman, may die. A quantity of benzine in the building caused the fire to burn furiously and to spread rapidly, and a panic among the employees, of whom there were 30 women and 10 men, resulted. A number of them jumped from windows, and six women who had made their way to a fire escape on the third floor leaped to the ground before they could be rescued. When the flames were gotten under control the bodies of two men and a woman were found in the ruins, burned beyond recognition. In the meantime about a dozen injured women and girls had been taken to the general hospital near by.

Roosevelt's Trip.
Washington, April 19.—President Roosevelt will receive the officials of the foreign governments at the Jamestown exposition aboard the yacht Mayflower, on which he makes the trip from Washington next Thursday afternoon, and will steam past the foreign men-of-war on the way to her anchorage Friday morning. While at anchor the officers of the visiting fleet will come aboard the president's yacht and be formally presented to him. Admiral Evans was at the White House to talk over the arrangements for the trip and the presentations of visitors.

Quakes at Manila.
Manila, April 19.—Two severe earthquake shocks were felt here. No damage is reported.

Forgery Alleged.
New York, April 19.—Abraham Benedict of the law firm of Guggenheim, Untermeyer & Marshall, counsel to the international policy-holders' committee, called on Acting District Attorney Smyth at the district attorney's office and laid before Mr. Smyth certain evidence by which, it is alleged, forgery had been committed in the elections held recently by the Mutual Life Insurance company and the New York Life Insurance company. The district attorney's office, it was stated, will investigate the matter.

WATERS OF THE COLORADO RIVER RISING BENEATH TREES, THE ROCK WAS DUMPED TO FORM THE DAM.

One of the hardest and most stubborn battles ever fought between man and Nature is that which has just resulted in closing the break in the Colorado river, which had threatened to make of the great Imperial Valley in California an inland sea. Now, at last, American brains, push, energy and capital combined, have won the victory over Nature. That the victory will be permanent is the confident belief of the men who have won it, and they are still working night and day to make it certain.

Not only has the break been closed; the Southern Pacific engineers are determined that such a break shall not occur again. Additional material is being added today at the rate of 5,000 cubic feet each 24 hours. When completed the dam will contain 140,000 cubic yards of material, 80,000 yards of which will be rock and the balance gravel and clay.

Philadelphian in Trouble.
New York, April 19.—Benedict Gimbell, a member of the firm of Gimbell Brothers, proprietors of one of the largest department stores of Philadelphia, was arrested here and, following arraignment in court, held on the double charge of improper conduct and attempted bribery of a police officer. The latter complaint was preferred at the instance of the district attorney's office after Gimbell had been taken into custody and had sought an illegal release. The original complainant was the wife of a Wall street broker whose 16-year-old son, Iver Clark, was in the company of Gimbell when the latter was arrested.

Fired at Belgian Consul.
Niot, France, April 19.—A Belgian anarchist named Van Loo fired six shots at the Belgian consul, in the presence of the latter's clerks, but did not hit him once. Van Loo was arrested.

PEACE CONFERENCE IS BEING HELD

Washington, April 19.—Charge Brown telegraphed the state department from Amapala, Honduras, that the representatives of Salvador and Nicaragua, appointed for the purpose, began a conference with the object of composing the differences between these countries, that threaten a renewal of hostilities in Central America. His dispatch did not indicate the result of the meeting.

Macklin Courtmartial.
San Antonio, Tex., April 19.—Lieutenant Walter C. Johnson, Twenty-fifth infantry, was on the stand in the Macklin courtmartial. He testified to the ease with which sounds can be heard at the quarters of Captain Macklin at Fort Brown. His testimony went to show that Macklin should have been aroused when called. Lieutenant H. G. Leckie testified to practically the same statement.

The maximum amount of water contended with during the construction of the dam approximated 40,000 seconds-feet. In a period of little more than two weeks a structure of rock, gravel and clay was built across the channel. The top of the dam is now four feet above the level of the water. Its vertical distance from the top of the base is 60 feet. The dam will be raised five or six feet higher, in order to be safely above the highest known water, and it is to be padded on the upstream side with clay until it shall become entirely impervious.

The President of the United States took a hand. He and Mr. Harriman exchanged numerous telegrams in a discussion as to the best course to be pursued. It was a rather delicate task for the government to undertake because an international question was involved. While the damage was being done in the United States, the break was in Mexico. The upshot of

OLIVER HAUGH ELECTROCUTED

Dayton Physician, Convicted of Murder, Dies In Ohio Prison.

FACED THE ORDEAL BRAVELY

Never Admitted the Killing of His Parents and Brother, For Which He Was Condemned—Twice Pronounced Sane, but Was a Slave to Drugs. Story of the Execution.

Columbus, O., April 19.—Retaining his nerve to the last and walking to the death chair unassisted, Oliver C. Haugh, the Dayton physician, suffered the extreme penalty shortly after midnight in the Ohio penitentiary annex. He was electrocuted for the murder of his father, mother and brother at Dayton, O., on the night of Nov. 4, 1905. Haugh made no statement and apparently was indifferent to his fate. No unusual incident marked the execution. Practically but one shock was administered, the current of 1,700 volts being gradually reduced to 350. The current was turned on at 12:04 and Haugh was pronounced dead at 12:10.

Dr. Haugh saw to one outside of the prison officials except Father Kelley, his spiritual adviser. Dr. Haugh never admitted the crime for which he was sentenced to death. He has never discussed it, so his attendants say, since he entered the annex. He is reported, however, to have protested his innocence.

The murder of Haugh's parents and brother occurred on the night of Nov. 1, 1905. The house in which the Haughs lived at Dayton was burned, and when search of the ruins was made the bodies of the elder Haugh, his wife and a son were found. All it was that the Southern Pacific was pledged to the work.

"The question as to what sum shall be paid to the railroad will be settled in the future," said the President in his message of January, and with that understanding the work is being done.

Epes Randolph, in charge of the work, utilized a system of brush mattress work as the base for all his dams, and into this he threw his rock fill. First they would run a railroad trestling across a break, then they would put down the mattress, after which trainload after trainload of heavy stones would come along and splash into the water.

As rapidly as the closure work has gone on the other phase of protection has not been neglected. Every day every hour sees the wall of levee all along the entire course rising higher and firmer. Every day sees confidence returning more and more to the farmers and artisans of the peaceful valleys.

circumstances indicated the family had been murdered and the house burned to conceal the crime. Dr. Haugh claimed he had barely escaped from the house with his life, and though he denied that he had committed any crime, suspicion pointed toward him, and after his arrest a strong circumstantial case was made. His defense was insanity, but he was twice examined and declared to be sane. It was brought out, however, that he was addicted to the use of a subtle drug known as hyoscine-hydrobromate. Later attempts were made to connect him with the murder of several women at Cincinnati who were mysteriously strangled. He was also said to be involved with a Mary Twohey, who died under suspicious circumstances at Lorain, O., and with a Mrs. Annie Patterson, who died mysteriously at Chicago. Haugh was married and his wife, now divorced, and two children are living in Dayton.

PLANS SIGNED FOR MONSTER WARSHIPS

Washington, April 19.—Secretary Mead signed the plans and specifications for two 20,000-ton battleships to be built for the navy. They are to be of the general type of the Dreadnaught of the British navy. The plans will be sent to two navy yards and such private shipbuilding firms as signify their intention to make bids on April 20, and bids will be opened June 20.

Negro Did Not Return.

Pittsburg, April 19.—H. L. Gillespie, a prominent contractor, reported to the police that Albert Wagner, a negro porter at the Dupresne club, whom he had sent to a bank with money to deposit, had failed to return, and a search is being made for him. Gillespie says he gave $650 in cash and a number of endorsed notes for large amounts which the bankers report they never received. Wagner came here from Cleveland and is said to have been well recommended.

DINNER TO BRYAN IN CONNECTICUT

Hartford, Conn., April 19.—The dinner given in honor of W. J. Bryan by the Democratic state central committee was a purely nonpartisan affair. Among the guests were many Republicans, including Governor Woodruff. The toastmaster, Mr. Comstock, called on Governor Woodruff for the opening speech. The governor in the course of his remarks said that it was Colonel Bryan's ambition to become president of the United States, and he "won't be happy until he gets it." He welcomed Mr. Bryan as one of the foremost men in America, and a man who held the good will and respect of every true American. Mr. Bryan in reply said he could not understand how it was that the Republicans who express so much love for him here could control their affections so admirably election day.

JEROME INVESTIGATES A CURRENT RUMOR THAT A POLICEMAN

Approached One of the Jurors in the Thaw Case—Juror in Consultation With Attorney.

New York, April 19.—It became definitely known that the question of counsel for Harry K. Thaw has not as yet been permanently settled. The publication of a letter sent by Thaw to Hartridge and Peabody, in which he informed them that they would continue as counsel of record, was generally accepted as disposing of that phase of the case for the present at least. However, Clifford W. Hartridge gave out a formal statement in which he said the supposition that he is senior counsel was absolutely unwarranted. He said that at the present time there is no senior counsel in the Thaw case. This statement was given out at Thaw's request. It is said, after a heated interview in the Tombs between the prisoner, Mr. Peabody and Daniel O'Reilly.

It was announced that Jerome had begun an investigation of a report that one of the jurors in the trial of Harry K. Thaw had been "approached" by a policeman before the trial closed. Henry C. Brearly, one of the jurors, had an interview with District Attorney Jerome at the latter's office. Later it was announced that several others of the Thaw jury would be asked to come to the district attorney's office and tell anything they know of the report in question. It was reported that a policeman talked with the jury on one of the walks the jurors took from the criminal courts building to the Broadway Central hotel.

Sleepless Champions Matched.
Great Barrington, Mass., April 19.—The title of world's sleepless champion, claimed by Willie Warren of this place, is disputed by Albert G. Herpin of Trenton, N. J. Hearing of Warren's reputation for having not slept a wink for 30 years, Herpin admits that his own sleepless period extends back only 14 years, but nevertheless he wants a match. Warren, being the challenged party, is now arranging the conditions.

Peace In Central America.
Washington, April 19.—Senator Corea, Nicaraguan minister, received a telegram from President Zelaya stating that the Nicaraguan forces were being withdrawn from Honduran territory. The administration of affairs has been entrusted by the victors to the provisional government of Honduras, and President Zelaya expressed the belief that a permanent peace would result.

MUELLER ACT HELD INVALID

Would Create Indebtedness Beyond Ability of Chicago to Incur.

RULING OF SUPREME COURT

Advocates of Municipal Ownership Depended on This Law to Enable Them to Secure Street Railways For the City—Decision Delays the Matter Indefinitely.

Springfield, Ill., April 19.—The supreme court of Illinois returned a decision declaring invalid The Mueller law, which authorized the city of Chicago to issue certificates for $75,000,000 with which to purchase street railways, the certificates to be repaid out of the surplus earning of the roads under municipal ownership. The court held that the act was unconstitutional, as it would create an indebtedness beyond the constitutional ability of the city to incur. The supporters of the act maintain that the certificates would form a lien on the street railway property.

It was this act that the Chicago advocates of municipal ownership depended on to enable them to gain the ownership for the city of the street railways. The net result of the supreme court's finding is to delay indefinitely the acquisition by the municipality of the streetcar system for control or operation. The street railway companies had not opposed the Mueller law, the constitutionality of the act being questioned by various citizens.

The Mueller law was adopted at the city election of April 5, 1904, by a vote of five to one. Under its provision the city council in January, 1906, passed an ordinance authorizing $5,000,000 worth of street railway certificates. The lower court sustained the validity of the law and the ordinance. On appeal this decision was reversed.

Longshoremen Lockout.

Hamburg, April 19.—The locked-out stevedores and longshoremen agreed not to celebrate May day here. It is expected the harbor traffic union, representing the companies, will reopen negotiations with the men and that lockout will be declared off in a few days.

Charged With Stealing Reports.

New York, April 19.—Charles Stevens, a young native of Haiti, and until recently employed in the office of the military attaché of the American legation at Port-Au-Prince, has been indicted by the federal grand jury and held in $3,000 bail for trial on the charge of stealing "property of the United States government at Haiti." It is understood that the property was certain reports which Captain Young, the military attaché at Port-Au-Prince, had received from the United States war department.

WIND AND HAIL DOES BIG DAMAGE IN FLORIDA CITY

Jacksonville, Fla., April 19.—A severe wind and hail storm struck Jacksonville, doing considerable damage. The tug Annie B. capsized and Captain Sloan was drowned. The driver of a milk wagon was killed by a live wire. Glass windows were demolished and several buildings were unroofed. The Dixie Land amusement park suffered several thousand dollars' damage. The hailstones were of unusual size, some of them measuring one and a half inches in diameter.

REGIS POST

Duly Inaugurated Governor of Island of Porto Rico.

San Juan, P. R., April 19.—Regis H. Post was inaugurated governor of Porto Rico in succession to Beekman Winthrop, who retired to become assistant secretary of the treasury at Washington. Chief Justice Quinones of the supreme court of the island administered the oath of office. Mr. Post has been active in the administrative and political life of this island since his appointment to the position of auditor in 1903. He subsequently became secretary of Porto Rico and president of the executive council. His appointment as governor is generally approved. He is the author of no less than 70 laws for the insular government.

Labor Riots.

Odessa, April 19.—Serious disturbances have again broken out in this city. Several members of the union of Russian people attacked workmen along the harbor front who refused to join the union, killing two and wounding five of them. No arrests were made. The workmen at once retaliated by going on strike, demanding that the members of the union be disarmed. The authorities, however, declined to grant this demand.

MISS JULIE FLORENCE WALSH

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, headache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is made from native roots and herbs. No other medicine in the country has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female ills.

Miss J. F. Walsh, of 325 W. 35th St., New York City, writes:—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been of inestimable value in restoring my health. I suffered from female illness which caused dreadful headaches, dizziness, and dull pains in my back, but your medicine soon brought about a change in my general condition, built me up and made me perfectly well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and organic diseases. It is invaluable in preparing for child-birth and during the Change of Life. It cures Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, and invigorates the whole system.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

SUFFRAGETTES IN KANSAS.

Two Lady Candidates Fall Out and Then Make Up.

Miss Tiera Farrow and Miss A. B. Chadborn, opposing political candidates for city treasurer of Kansas City, Kan., sat at a table in the Young Women's Christian association rooms in that city eating a light luncheon of lettuce and nut sandwiches, says the Kansas City Star. It was the same table at which they had sat every noon since they had agreed to "show these horrid men" how to campaign. Both were silent and nervous. A coolness of manner was noticeable in the way Miss Chadborn tossed her pretty Easter hat. Finally she broke forth with:

"I am sorry to see, Miss Farrow, that you have broken the agreement between us. You remember it was to buy no more new things before election. It pains me very much to inform you that you have broken your word by wearing a new white shirt waist the day before election."

"Why, Miss Chadborn, I wouldn't believe you if you did. You have it on now, and I think you have taken an unfair advantage of me. So there, now!"

"Well, if you are going to be mean about it I don't care. I'll have you beaten a city block when the returns come in anyway. I have the promise of more votes than you ever thought of getting," Miss Farrow's dark eyes flashed.

"Oh, you're not so many!" Miss Chadborn returned. "I have a few votes promised for myself. I won't even give you an invitation to call on me at the city hall when I become city treasurer."

Miss Chadborn, the Democratic candidate, arose from her seat. She looked scornfully at her opponent as she turned to leave. But Miss Farrow was smiling.

"What is the use of us quarreling?" the Republican candidate asked. "It doesn't buy either of us any votes. Besides, we really like each other. As for this shirt waist, that wasn't included in our agreement. Only shoes, hats and dresses were specified in it."

TO PRESERVE INDIAN RELICS.

The North Dakota State Historical Society Takes Up the Work.

A new movement is on foot in North Dakota. For years this state has been the resort of the Indian relic hunter, and thousands of specimens have been carried off each year, says the Minneapolis Journal. The two great trunk lines of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern traversing the state greatly facilitates the process. Recently, however, with the reorganization of the State Historical society the people of the state have awakened to the value of their archaeological material and propose in the future to do their own exploring of old Indian sites and preserve for their own use the remains of the vanished races once occupying their lands.

A PRIVILEGE RESERVED.

Ceremonies Witnessed at a Jeweler's Ring Counter.

"I want a plain gold ring for a lady. Best you've got in the store."

"For this lady?"

"Sure! Who else would it be for? Pull off your glove, Katie, and let the gentleman measure your finger."

The girl withdrew her woolen glove and bashfully extended her small hand, red and toll worn, toward the clerk.

"There, that's about the size," said the jeweler to the girl.

"Do you wish him to put it on?"

"No—not yet," said the blushing girl. "When he puts that ring on, it's on to stay."

Size, quality and price at last were settled satisfactorily, and the young man pulled from his pocket a shining coin.

"Here you are, gold for gold!" he exclaimed proudly. "Nothin' but gold'll pay for that ring."

"Haven't you anything smaller?" asked the sordid clerk.

"Plenty, but nothin' good enough to pay for that ring."

"Bit of sentiment, eh?" queried an interested bystander.

"Oh, yes, sir," said the girl, with evident pride. "He's been saving that twenty dollar gold piece for nearly four months, waiting to buy this ring."

WOMAN HAS ARRIVED

Nineteen Have Been Elected to the Diet of Finland.

FIRST NATIONAL LAWMAKERS.

Surprising News From Europe—Finnish Women Said to Be Very Bright. Farmers' Wives to Sit in the Legislative Body—The Men Don't Like It.

The message has hummed along the cable over the great ocean plains that in the little country of rivers and forests over which not so long since the wings of the Russian eagle spread their sinister shadow women have obtained a voice in the government. This is the message complete as it was flashed from Helsinki:

"The returns of the elections for members of the Finnish diet show that nineteen women, of whom nine are Socialists, have been elected. This is the first occasion that women representatives have been elected to any national legislature."

That Finland, with "Darkest Russia" only a step away, where certain disgruntled gentlemen have developed a fondness for casting bombs at noble heads which meet with their disapproval, should be the first country to discover that women have a right to have a hand in the government if they want to was quite the most surprising news that the cable had carried in a long time, says the New York Evening Sun. It was to find out, therefore, about this truly wonderful thing that an interviewer started out.

The first objective point was the office of the Russian consul in a high building overlooking Battery park. The spread eagle of Russia was over the door, and inside was a press of immigrants. The consul's assistant paused long enough to dart into the inner office, from which a little man with a white beard darted out with an anxious expression, as if he had suddenly been called upon to receive a Japanese general. He was courteous personified. He knew nothing about the election, but the Finns were a bright people—oh, an exceedingly bright people! He talked a great deal with his hands, using gestures expressing apology, regret and genuine sorrow as he explained, "It is not that I have an intention to offend, but that it is impossible I should know."

The interviewer was finally directed to Editor E. J. Antell of the Finska Amerikanaren at 478 Fourth street, Brooklyn, as the man who would know more than any other Finn in the city about it. Mr. Antell was at home.

"I have read the dispatch," he said. "I have no confirmation of it yet, and I do not suppose I shall hear about it officially until Wednesday or Thursday. Socialism has advanced with great strides in Finland during the last two or three years. There are five Socialist newspapers in the country now. It is not the result of any abnormal conditions. The lot of the Finnish women is a happy one, and they are contented. There is not so much club life as there is here, but the women have played a prominent part in the affairs of the land in school matters and other things."

"Formerly the common people had very little to say in the diet, but now every man who reaches the age of twenty-four years and against whom there is no black past has a right to vote. Last year the women won the right to vote. They can now vote on any subject. Farmers' wives may be elected to the diet. The Finnish women are very bright—very well educated."

"What is the politics of Finland?"

"There are many political parties. The Socialists are a quiet lot. It is not so long since Finland had turbulent times—you may remember reading about the shooting of a governor general—but this turbulence has disappeared."

"How do the Finnish men regard this success of the women in winning the right to take part in the government of affairs through the diet?"

"Officially there is nothing said about it, but in their hearts I don't think many of them like it. The diet is a body of some 200 members. Its actions are subject to review by the grand duke, who is the present czar of Russia. In other than state matters the right of the diet is not interfered with, but all state matters voted on by the diet must go before the grand duke for final disposition. If he vetoes it the diet can do nothing."

Elephant's Three Story House.

Gunda, the big elephant up in the Bronx Zoological park, is to have a new house, says the Brooklyn Eagle. It will be a three story affair and will cost the city $150,000, but in the zoo they say there is nothing too good for an animal who weighs as much as a locomotive but can still discuss music on a mouth organ. "Like a human being," says his keeper, regardless of the instrument chosen for Gunda's musical feats.

The new Pachyderm flats will be built in Baird's court, about midway between the lion and the monkey houses. The plans which have been filed with the building department provide for a gymnasium and sun parlor, a trunk room and a bathroom, with hot and cold water attachments. Bids to construct the bath tub will be received in a few days from the most prominent builders of bathhouses in the world.

Resides there will be a dining room done in jungle style and a complete dinner service of iron mangers and drinking troughs. There will be no elevator, but runways at an easy grade will allow Gunda to circulate from cellar to garret.

A Cigar Wrapper Often Covers a Multitude of Sins

You know quite well that there are many cigars sold for five cents that are very poor quality. They are sold on appearance. A fine appearing wrapper, a handsome gold band or a pretty box-lid may cover a multitude of sins, but it is the filler, the inside of a cigar, that determines its smoking quality.

Modern manufacture exemplified in the American Cigar Company's products has grown way above this unfortunate method of doing business and assures a cigar that is honest all through.

The "Triangle A" merit mark on a box of cigars means that every sprig of leaf in every cigar in the box was graded especially by experts for that one brand, two years before it was made; that during this time the leaf has mellowed in great, clean warehouses in a perfect temperature till all its finest qualities are brought to a point of perfection.

These are some of the reasons why "Triangle A" cigars smoke with the fine mellow flavor that you thought was only to be found in expensive brands; why every "Triangle A" cigar has an even flavor and aroma from end to end; why every cigar of each "Triangle A" brand smokes just the same.

"Triangle A" cigars cost you no more than the "mixed" cigars—though they are worth twice as much.

Look for the "A" (Triangle A) when you buy cigars.

"Triangle A" brands offer the widest obtainable range of choice, and absolutely dependable quality in whatever brand suits your taste. You'll never find a better brand to make the test with than

The New CREMO

Every box is now extra-wrapped in glassine paper, sealed at each end with the "Triangle A" in red. The cigars are kept clean, fresh and in perfect smoking condition until the box is opened.

OIL AND GAS NOTES

The Logan Gas Company is at work securing the right of way to lay a gas line just east of Fredonia, running from their line east of Highwater, south to Luray. The object of this is to pass through or near lands which the company has leased, as they intend to develop this territory the coming summer. The farmers seem to be little difficulty in obtaining the privilege of crossing their farms.

At a meeting of the Possum Oil and Gas company held Wednesday, L. C. Mengert of Mansfield, was elected president; David McCready of Butler, vice president; W. A. Koppe of Bellville, secretary; and L. M. Gardner of Bellville, and Hon. Luke F. Jones of Wooster, directors. The company will begin drilling on the Cates farm at once. The Logan company is now building a derrick two miles north of the Cates farm, three and four miles north east of Bellville and about three miles north of the big Durbin gas well.—Bellville Messenger.

The Logan and Mansfield company is building a derrick on the Brown farm, four miles northwest of Bellville.

The Mobican Oil and Gas company placed derrick timber on the farm of Fred Mengert, over in Monroe township, Knox county, and a well will be put down immediately.

The Jefferson Oil and Gas company will move the machinery to the Stoffer lease within ten days, and will drill immediately north of the big Durbin well. This is considered one of the best leases in the field.

The Quaker Oil and Gas company has erected a three hundred barrel tank at their well recently drilled in at Brink Haven, and in a very few days will test the capacity of the well. Since the well was shot it has been capped and the yielding capacity has not been determined.

The Heisey company has made location No. 2 on the John Montgomery farm west of town. The No. 1 well is due to come in about next Tuesday.

and the No. 2 location is 1300 feet south of No. 1.

All the larger companies are getting ready for a big summer's work. There is but little doing now in the Licking-Knox field. This is perhaps due to the various companies closing up the years business on April 30. Some have been invoicing for the past month.

Logan right of way men are at work in Union township for a field line along the west line of the Frank Hallbrant.

Rumors have been afloat the last two days that the Consumers company, who are drilling near Jersey, had struck "pay." The facts are they struck a strong water vein at the bottom of the line with a slight showing of gas, and casing will be necessary before drilling resumes.

The Wait & Levering well on the Laughery farm in Harrison township, Knox county, has obtained a steady flow of gas and will exceed three million with forty of sand. The Homer company has many acres under lease in this territory. This is the extreme well which greatly extends the field.

F. W. Crawford and M. E. Lytle, of the Ohio Fuel are in West Virginia, where they have gone to see some wells come in. The company has over a hundred thousand acres under lease in this field and a number of good wells. Some time, a pipe line may be laid running north to connect with their various lines in Ohio.

The Logan and Mansfield company is building a derrick on the Brown farm four miles northwest of Bellville. The Jefferson Oil and Gas company will move the machinery to the Stoffer lease within ten days, and will drill immediately north of the big Durbin well. This is considered one of the best leases in the field.—Bellville Messenger.

THE AWFUL BIG CATS

They Are the Most Dangerous of All Wild Animals.

TIGERS MERCILESS DEMONS.

While Easy to Handle and Quick to Learn, When Aroused They Are Fiends Incarnate—Panthers, Jaguars and Leopards Are Treacherous.

"Of all wild animals," writes A. W. Rolker in Appleton's Magazine, "including the rhinoceros with his frightful charge and his dreadful horn, including the rogue elephant with his unbounded strength, his marvelous cunning and his villainous trunk, and including that gray shaggy rogue, the American grizzly, with his rib crushing hug, his ponderous paw and his hot, reeking maw, no beast is as dangerous to man as any one of the big cats."

"For, besides the mouth provided with teeth that can crunch through the leg bone of a man as if it were a pipestem, each foot is provided with five pointed claws, pointed like needles and from three to four and a half inches long. As the beast strikes with these, he draws the claws in, keeping hold of muscles and tendons and ligaments and tearing them out of the flesh until they snap like rubber bands, so that unless the victim succumbs it will be months and months and sometimes years and years before he can regain use of an injured member."

"But not only do these talons tear viciously. Curious to say, although the claws are needle pointed and the edges are dull as the tip of a little finger, a cut with one of these hooks is like the cut of a dagger. On one occasion in Bostock's trained wild animal show a Bengal tigress made a sweep at a European black bear, cut through the six inch thick fur of the bear and cut three parallel strips two feet long and six inches deep and clean as razor slashes to the very backbone of the bear."

"As a matter of fact, the dexterity of one of these big cats' claws is astounding. Here is a curious accident which happened to Bostock when he undertook personally to break in a 'rogue' tiger that had 'gone bad.' Provided with sole leather guards worn next the skin and covering the fleshy part of the leg from the groin to the knee, he entered the arena with the had one and was attacked and wounded. His trousers were slashed in one spot just big enough to admit a single claw, an undergarment showed two similar and the sole leather guard three similar cuts, while the flesh was torn an inch deep in four places three inches long.

"Still another instance showing the marvelous quickness of claw happened in the same show when the trainer in charge of a leopard group was saved in the nick of time from a rogue which had tried to pull him down by climbing up on him. The arm of this man showed between wrist and elbow alone twenty-six wounds varying from a quarter of an inch deep and an inch long to one inch deep and four inches long.

"Of all the big cats, including that magnificent jungle maned monarch of might, the lion, and including those beautifully spotted orange and black villains, the jaguar and the leopard, and their cousin, that noiseless, lightning swift traitor, the panther, trainers prefer to handle the tiger."

"This is contrary to the popular belief which credits the tiger as the most bloodthirsty of all wild beasts. The tiger is, however, the quickest to learn and the easiest to handle. Whereas the tiger always remains a nervous, high strung brute, after a time a lion becomes phlegmatic and lazy and requires urging, which is apt to cause trouble."

"Whereas the tiger is a demon incarnate and merciless once aroused, he is at least an honest fighter that gives ample warning when about to attack, and only as a rare exception attacks a man from behind, unlike the jaguar, the leopard and the panther, which are treacherous and almost invariably attack when a back is turned."

"Again, of all this dangerous family the nature of the tiger comes nearest that of any ordinary house cat, and, always comparatively, the tiger it is that is most appreciative once the master has succeeded in establishing his truce. Then, like the domestic cat, he likes to brush up against the person of his trainer, loves to have his back rubbed and groomed and the top of his head scratched to soothe the everlasting itch between the ears, while he emits purrs of satisfaction, forgetting that the least unforeseen accident may arouse murderous instincts that would in a twinkling convert the friendly meeting into a shambles."

Sore Throat Not a Trifling Ailment

Almost every one has had sore throat—will have it again. It is one of our most common ailments and because it, in itself, is not fatal, is too often looked upon as a small matter, requiring little or no attention.

On the contrary it is a very serious affection because every person with Sore Throat is in danger of Tonsillitis, Quinsy, or Diphtheria and other serious maladies. In fact these diseases are almost invariably preceded by Sore Throat.

The air we breathe, the food we eat, the liquids we drink all pass through the throat and if that is diseased, infection is quickly carried to every part of the system. To cure a Sore Throat often means to prevent Diphtheria or one of the other more serious throat diseases. Curing Sore Throat is TONSILINE'S special mission. It is made for that—advised for that—sold for that one purpose. TONSILINE is the one and only Sore Throat cure which is sold over a large part of the United States.

TONSILINE is so well and so skillfully prepared as a Sore Throat cure that the first dose always gives decided relief and a very few doses cure.

Remember—Sore Throat is Nature's danger signal.—Keep TONSILINE in the house and be on the safe side of Sore Throat.

NEWARK Y. M. C. A. JUNIORS TO JOIN BIG TRAMP TO COSHOCTON

Thousands of Young Boys Will March from Ohio Points in True Gypsy Fashion--Stupendous Undertaking for Y. M. C. A. Boys.

The greatest crusade of boys that ever swept over Ohio will be made this coming summer. They will start on a march from Newark, Toledo, Columbus, Cleveland, Dayton, Springfield, Akron, Mansfield, Canton, Youngstown, Painesville, Bellevue and other places, with a spot in Coshocton county as their objective point, where they will center for a three days' carnival.

The enterprise was planned by the leaders of Boys' Work department of the Y. M. C. A. and has been engaging its attention for several months past. The idea originated with the Cleveland association which will send three large delegations on the march. All the boy crusaders will be under eighteen years of age.

The idea of the great march has been received at the international headquarters of the Y. M. C. A. in New York, as one of the most stupendous ever conceived by association workers. That office will honor the event by sending a speaker from New York to address the boys in camp. The marchers will call themselves Gypsies and will travel in true Roman fashion. Each band will be accompanied by one or two wagons and the young travelers will have the privilege of riding, but will be encouraged to walk. There will be three orders of honor among the Gypsies. The boy who walks five miles each day while en route will, upon arrival at the camp, have the order of "The Yellow Rag," conferred upon him. This will be a plain yellow handkerchief, which he will wear around his neck. Upon the boy who walks 15 miles a day will be conferred the order of "The Red Bandanna," a bandanna handkerchief. Those who have walked the entire distance will be honored with the order of "The Kettle," a kettle shaped device in red which will be pinned on the uniform. The latter will consist of blue overalls, a cotton shirt, farmer's straw hats and a blue handkerchief around the neck. The flag colors will be a yellow background with a red kettle in the center.

The Newark Gypsies will start on July 3. The Fourth of July will be spent on the march, the boys singing patriotic songs and waving "Old Glory," along with the kettle spangled banner. All the delegation will be in camp by the 5th. Each band will furnish its own commissary department, will have its own cooks and complete outfit.

The three days of camp life will be punctuated by cross country runs, water sports, jumping games and tree climbing contests. Each department will enter their best teams for the races. There will be games of baseball, and in the evening camp fires, stories, potato roasts, and other things. Boating will be an enjoyable feature of the daily program. Religious services will be held on Sunday.

Secretary Bailey and Gates of the Columbus and Akron associations, were delegated to "spy out the land," and find a desirable location for the encampment, near Coshocton. Their latest report indicates that they have found the right spot.

The officials in charge of the expedition will be known as High Muckety Muck and Musty Muck, for the executive board. A. O. Ludwig is the High Muckety Muck. The officials among the boys will be called, Muck, Mucky Muck, High Muck Muck. The man in charge of these officials will be High Muckety Muck.

most of his voice for that passionate and dramatic song, "Upon That Day." In this song the singer's dramatic power came out marked and strong.

Mr. Legler is considered one of our foremost singers and a brilliant career is predicted for him.

Miss Dorothy Kibler the accompanist, displayed her ability and skill in playing to a marked degree, and is an artist that furnishes an inspiration to a singer, as her playing is both artistic and sympathetic. The recital reflected great credit upon the artistic ability of the performers and was a delight to the large audience.

Miss Ella A. Humphrey, during the past few days, has been especially honored with entertainments prior to her marriage to Mr. S. H. Nichol, who is located at Wilmington, N. C., and who is a son of Mr. Ferris Nichol. The marriage is to take place at the home of Miss Humphrey's aunt, Miss Kate Humphrey, and the happy couple will live in Wilmington.

On last Friday evening, Mrs. Geo. T. Jones and daughter, Miss Minnie Jones, entertained about twenty-five of their lady friends with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Humphrey.

One of the prettiest functions in honor of Miss Humphrey, given the past week, was the luncheon given by Mrs. John M. Swartz at her home on Pearl street, at noon on Tuesday, to about 20 guests.

Miss Clara Sheldon entertained twenty friends at dinner Wednesday noon in honor of Miss Humphrey.

Miss Elizabeth Morris of Columbus will give a dinner to nine couples at the home of Mrs. Tight, on West Broadway, on Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in honor of Miss Humphrey.

The drillers who are engaged in drilling the well on the Sinner farm near the T. & O. C. railroad, are wrestling with a knotty proposition. They have a hole in the ground that is about 2000 feet deep and it has been filled with salt water. Several days were spent in casing the well, but that did not better things and the casing will be drawn again. The well has been reamed and casing will be put in the depth of the well. It is expected that the well will come in the first of the week. All the indications are favorable for a good well.

At the meeting of Altamaha lodge Knights of Pythias, No. 296, of this place, held on Wednesday night, the Page rank was conferred on one candidate, and there will be work in the degrees on next Wednesday night.

The regular meeting of the Fortnightly club was held at the home of Miss Sheldon, Tuesday evening, April 16. Twenty-six members responded to roll call with quotations prepared by Miss Amelia Owens and Mrs. Harry Howe. The following program was given:

Paper, "Italian Literature," Mrs. F. F. Robinson.
Paper, "Michael Angelo," Mrs. Graham.

Paper, "Fra Angelico, Donatello," Mrs. E. E. Wright.

Readin from Hawthorne's "Marble Faun," Mrs. Chas. Thornton.
The papers of the evening were interesting and instructive and showed careful preparation. Pictures showing the works of art of Michael Angelo, and some of Fra Angelico, were passed as those papers were read, which added to the interest of the papers.

Mrs. Raymond was the guest of the evening.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Swartz, April 24th.

TRAINING HORSES

Equestrian Shipp of the Forepaugh-Sells Circus Tells How He Does His Work.

What is the power which man exercises over the horse when the equine is made to perform feats, seemingly beyond his power of comprehension? was asked of Edward Shipp, equestrian director of Forepaugh-Sells circuses. Mr. Shipp's opinion is that the curious, indefinite quantity known as "instinct" is at the bottom of all the tricks that the horse learns. Just as he eats from instinct, he learns tricks. Usually the eating is at the bottom of his entire education. He does things for the most part because he gets something good to eat after the doing. It is his natural search after food that makes him do them, just as he paws away the snow to get at the grass. After a while the action becomes habit, and we will say he is broken. There never was anything to break. His instincts were simply set in motion. Some men take months to teach a horse the simplest trick and weeks to make him bridleswift. In a week I can have the same horse responding easily to my directions in simple tricks. It isn't the horse; it is the trainer. Some men exercise an influence over animals which is almost hypnotic. The man himself can't tell how it is done. In some mysterious manner the horse's instincts make him do certain things in certain ways at certain times. He does them just as he eats and with no more evidence of judgment.

It is no uncommon thing for a horse to open a feed box to get at the grain inside. Some people fancy this is a proof of intelligence. Really it is natural nosing after something to eat. Man is not the only animal whose heart can best be reached through his stomach. There is not the slightest reason to believe that a horse has a thinking mind. Here is an instance:
During the winter two of our ponies that do a pedestal act, and always get a lump of sugar after it, if they made no mistakes, rehearsed so much that their pedestal became discolored from dirt. When we gave our opening performance the little platforms were repainted. What do you think those ponies did?

The refusal to act. When led into the ring and set at their tasks they looked and sniffed at the new pedestals and didn't make a movement in the direction of their usual performance.

It wasn't intelligence that made act thus. The same lumps of sugar were waiting at the end. They simply hadn't sense enough to know their own implements in white paint.
If a horse is taught to go through a red door he will have to be taught all over again to go through a white one. All doors do not look alike to him.

But a horse has nerves, plenty of them. Sometimes I think it is more these little electric wires than anything else makes him amenable to teaching. Imagine, then, the patience a trainer must possess to train creatures with nerves but no logic, so far as I am able to see.

Mr. Shipp has a number of equine high school graduates which will make their bow Tuesday next in Newark, during the performance of the Forepaugh-Sells shows.

WEAPONS TAKEN FROM ITALIANS BY THE POLICE

NEW YORK, April 13.—Opinion against the practice of carrying concealed weapons reached a climax, and demands were heard on every side for making the bearing of every variety of such arms a felony. More than one hundred Italians were held in the police courts for special and general sessions on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. Thirty of them, unable to furnish bail, are now at the Tombs.
